

SEPTEMBER 2010

Sapphire is the birthstone for September. It is a really versatile gem which is available in a large range of colours, sizes and shapes which are very individual. Debi and Barb worked tirelessly on a recent buying trip to find clean and well cut gemstones. Gems of this quality are unique and scarce.

EXQUISITE GEMS

SAPPHIRE 9.41CT 14.3 x 10.7mm
We all agree this sapphire ticks all the boxes. Great shape, clean, bright even colour, perfect depth. The person who ends up wearing this sapphire is extremely lucky!

BURMESE SPINEL 3.88CT 9.4 x 8mm
Spinel is becoming very popular world wide. Very rare in a bright rich red colour and in the sought after cushion shape. This is an exceptional gem.

DEMANTOID GARNET 4.68CT 11 x 9.2mm
We have limited stock of this beautiful, rare and valuable Garnet. Vibrant and clean this Demantoid is a gem worthy to be in any collection.

TANZANITE 6.06CT 11.3mm
Unusual to find this popular gem in such a large round. It is bright and lively in a rich purple colour.

SPINEL 3.26CT 14 x 7.3mm
A unique electric orangish pink Spinel. Superbly cut, it is bright and clean which is extremely rare for a gem this size.

ALEXANDRITE 2.54CT 7.9 x 7.3mm
The first reaction when this gem arrived in the office was WOW! Although we have sold some very fine Alexandrites we have never seen one of this size and quality before. It has a strong colour change from bluish green in daylight to purplish red in incandescent light.

PERIDOT 13.46CT 15.8 x 11.8mm
Valuable in large sizes Peridot is a popular green gem. This rich green cushion is bright and well cut.

AQUAMARINE 14.67CT 19 x 13.1mm
A great shape, clean and bright in the classic Aquamarine colour. The design possibilities for this gem are unlimited.
